A Call to Action: Shaping Namibia's Oil and Gas Future

22nd of January 2024

To the Esteemed Members of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Namibia (ICAN), the Engineering Society of Namibia (ESN), and the Law Society of Namibia (LSN),

We are thrilled to announce the launch of an online survey aimed at establishing the Namibian Oil and Gas Alliance (NAOGA). This marks a pivotal moment in shaping the future of this burgeoning industry in our Nation. Your combined expertise in finance, engineering, and legal matters makes you invaluable partners in this endeavour.

Through this survey, we seek your vital insights, perspectives, and concerns regarding the formation of NAOGA. Your participation will not only guide its structure and objectives but also ensure that it effectively serves the interests of all stakeholders in the Namibian oil and gas landscape.

We urge you to engage in this online exercise. Whether you are an accountant meticulously navigating financial complexities, an engineer meticulously crafting infrastructure, or a lawyer safeguarding legal frameworks, your voice matters. Let us collectively embark on this exciting journey to build a low-cost, robust and sustainable oil and gas sector that fosters immediate and timely-development, economic prosperity and environmental responsibility for Namibia.

Click the link below to access the survey and make your voice heard in the crafting of NAOGA. Together, let us chart a course for a thriving and responsible Namibian oil and gas future.
